NOTICE

This manual was created for reference and training purposes only. The content is not to be used as a substitute for legal advice. It is the candidate's responsibility to obtain knowledge of any and all campaign laws and regulations.

Steps for Candidacy

These recommended steps to become a candidate for elected office in Adams County are for reference and training purposes only and should not be used as a substitute for legal advice. It is the candidate's responsibility to review campaign laws and regulations.

STEP 1:

Review the candidate requirements, office responsibilities and duties of county elected offices in the Colorado Constitution and Colorado Revised Statutes. Qualifications can be found on page 2. You will be required to swear and affirm by oath that you meet the qualifications for county elected office in a Candidate Affidavit.

STEP 2:

Review your voter registration at www.govotecolorado.com to ensure you are registered to vote and qualified to run for office. Furthermore, confirm with the county, city, school district or special district in which you are running that you are a resident of that jurisdiction.

STEP 3:

You become a candidate when you publicly announce your intent to run for office and thereafter receive a contribution or make an expenditure in support of your candidacy. You must register a candidate committee before receiving or spending any money and your Candidate Affidavit with the Secretary of State at tracer.sos.colorado.gov.

STEP 4:

Familiarize yourself with Colorado Campaign Finance rules and laws as well as the Secretary of State TRACER system for all campaign finance disclosure reports and committee registration using the following resources:

- Colorado Campaign and Political Finance Manual published by the Secretary of State
- Colorado Constitution Article XXVIII (Campaign and Political Finance) and XIV (Counties)
- Colorado Revised Statutes (C.R.S.) Title I, Article 45 (Fair Campaign Practices Act) and Article 4 (Elections - Access to Ballot by Candidates)
- Current year Election Calendar and Campaign Finance calendars.

STEP 5:

Get your name on the ballot in one of three ways (see pages 3-4 for details):

- Certificate of Designation by Assembly
- Certificate of Designation by Petition
- Certificate of Designation by Write-In

STEP 6:

County Coroner and Sheriff candidates must have their fingerprints taken by a qualified law enforcement agency, submitting a receipt evidencing the fingerprinting at the time of filing your written acceptance or candidate affidavit.

STEP 7:

Complete a Candidate Affidavit Form within 10 days of becoming a candidate. Failure to do so may result in disqualification.

Basic Qualifications for County Offices

The following basic qualifications for Adams County elected offices should be used for reference only. Please review the Colorado Constitution and Colorado Revised Statutes [C.R.S.] for current applicable laws.

Note: no person is eligible to be a candidate for more than one office at a time, except for special district boards.

Election Laws, Rules, and Resources can be found on the Secretary of States website.

Becoming a Candidate for County Office

There are three ways to get your name on the ballot:

- Assembly Nomination
- Petition
- Write-in Process

Certificate of Designation by Assembly

Candidates must be registered as affiliated with their party no later than the first business day of January of the election year, unless party rules state otherwise.

Major and minor party candidates may seek nomination to office at their political party's assembly held no later than 25 days after the Precinct Caucus.

Candidates who want to be a part of this process should contact their political party for assembly protocol, dates and rules. See page 7 for party contact information.

At the assembly, the party delegates vote on the candidates.

- Major party candidates nominated by assembly are placed on the Primary Election ballot.
- Minor party candidates nominated by assembly are placed on the General Election ballot unless there is more than one candidate for that office nominated by assembly and/or petition; then the candidates are placed on the Primary Election ballot.

The Certificate of Designation by Assembly must be filed by the political party with the designated election official no later than four days after the assembly.

Forms to be filed with County Clerk and Recorder (filed by political party):

- ✓ Certificate of Designation by Assembly (Form available in 2020)
- ✓ Candidate Acceptance of Designation (Form available in 2020)

Becoming a Candidate for County Office

Certificate of Designation by Petition

The petition process involves:

- Circulating a written petition to other registered electors who share your party affiliation (if applicable)
- Obtaining their signature in support of your candidacy

The County Clerk must approve all petition formats prior to circulation. Each petition may contain only one candidate's name. The County Clerk's office will verify the petition signatures and notify the candidate of sufficiency or insufficiency.

For detailed information, please see Title 1, Article 4, Part 8 of Colorado Revised Statutes on Nomination of Candidates by Petition for requirements.

Unaffiliated candidates must have their names put on the ballot through the petition process.

- An unaffiliated candidate must be registered as unaffiliated no later than the first business day of the election year to petition onto the ballot.
- Unaffiliated candidates nominated by petition are placed directly on the General Election ballot.
- There is no Primary Election for unaffiliated candidates.

Form to be filed with County Clerk and Recorder:

✓ Unaffiliated Candidate General Election Designation Petition (Form available in 2020)

Affiliated candidates (major or minor party) may use the petition option when they do not wish to go through the assembly process.

- A candidate must be affiliated with the political party no later than the first business day of the election year to petition onto the ballot.
- A candidate may not petition onto the ballot if they have attempted and failed to receive at least 10 percent of the votes for nomination for the same office at their party's assembly.

Forms to be filed with County Clerk and Recorder:

✓ Major Political Party Primary Designation Petition (Form available in 2020)

✓ Minor Political Party Designation Petition (Form available in 2020)

✓ Candidate Acceptance of Petition Nomination (Form available in 2020)

Certificate of Designation by Write-In

A write-in candidate is a candidate whose name does not appear on the ballot but voters may vote for the candidate by writing in the person's name.

Any person who meets the requirements to run for county elected office who wishes to be a write-in candidate must file an Affidavit of Intent for Write-In Designation (Form available in 2020) with the County Clerk by the 67th day before a Primary Election or by the 110th day before any other election.

The header features a red horizontal bar with the text "Withdrawal Process" in white. To the left of the bar are three stars: a large red star with a white outline, a smaller blue star, and a white star with a red outline. A blue vertical bar is on the far left, and a blue horizontal bar is at the top left corner.

Withdrawal Process

If you wish to withdraw your candidacy, the correct procedure depends upon your status on the ballot.

- If you have already been designated or nominated to the ballot by party assembly or by petition and wish to withdraw your candidacy, you may submit a signed and notarized Statement of Withdrawal by Candidate to the Adams County Clerk and Recorder.

If the form is not filed in time for your name to be taken off the ballot, the election will proceed and any votes cast for you will be deemed invalid and will not be counted.

- If you are a candidate but have not yet been designated or nominated to the ballot and wish to withdraw your candidacy, you may submit a signed letter of withdrawal to the Adams County Clerk and Recorder.
